Final Note by the Third Member of Council.

Subject:-

Annual grant for the Mysore Police Journal in Kannada.

20) In Government Order No.G.3498-9/Police.178-18-4 dated 12th August 1919 a grant-in-aid of Rs.500/- was sanctioned for the said journal during the year 1919-20. The journal was started on the 28th January 1920 and has thus now entered upon the second year of its existence. The Inspector General of Police reports that the journal serves a very useful purpose and is popular with the members of the Police force, there being as many as 1084 subscribers. The income from subscriptions (Rs.2 a year) amounts to Rs.2036 as against an expenditure of Rs.2436/-. There is thus a deficit of Rs.400/- a year which has to be recouped. The Inspector General wants to enhance the honorarium of the editor from Rs.300 to Rs.500 a year and has applied for a total grant of Rs.600 to be met out of the provision made for 'House rent for Hostel and other charges' under '20 Police - 4 Police Training School.'

21) 2. I consider that the honorarium now paid to the Editor (Rs.300/- a year) is quite sufficient. This sum was fixed with due regard to the amount of time and attention required on his part. If his emoluments are raised the journal will never become self-supporting. To make up for the excess expenditure over income a grant of Rs.400/- may be sanctioned for another year and the Inspector General may be asked to make the journal self-supporting. If at the end of the 2nd year, the journal does not pay its way it may be discontinued.

Draft for approval

22) 3. A draft Government Order is accordingly put up and may be graciously approved.

Chief Secretary to the Government of Mysore.

Sir,

I

With reference to Government Order No. G. 3498-9/Pol 178-19-4 dated 12-8-19, I have the honor to state that the Mysore Police Journal (in Kanada) was started in June 1920 and is being published in the last week of every month regularly, under the Editorship of Mr. S.N. Hanumantha Rao, B.A., Senior Inspector of Police in the Police Training School, Fort, Bangalore.

2. 841 copies of the first issue was sent to Districts for distribution among the Police Subscribers. The number of subscribers including (both private and Police) rose to 1084 at the end of the year which proves the utility of the Journal.

3. Instructive articles dealing with the duties, discipline of the force, its relationship to the people, the investigation and successful termination of the cases handled by the investigators, hints on prevention and detection of Crime and the efficient maintenance of the morale of the Force, are published. In fact, no pains are spared by the Editorial staff in advancing the efficiency of the Police Force through the medium of the Journal.

4) Government have been pleased to sanction a grant-in-aid of Rs 500/- (para 2 of the Government Order quoted above) towards the initial cha required for the conduct of the Journal. Deducting the 22 complimentry copies, the annual subscription for 1018 copies comes to Rs 2036/- per year. The average expenses in the conduct of the Journal would amount to Rs 2436/- as detailed hereunder:---

(1)	Printing 1150 copies of the Journal, wrappers etc., at Rs 100/-a month.	Rs 1200/-
(2)	Remuneration to original Articles accepted and published.	" 300/-
(3)	Editor's Emoluments	" 300/-
(4)	Establishment charges for 1 clerk and 2 peons at Rs 28/ a month.	" 336/-
(5)	Purchase of books etc., for the Editor's Table.	" 120/-.
(6)	Editor's Office contingencies at Rs 15/- a month.	" 180/-.

5) It may be observed that over and above the amount realised by subscription (@Rs 2/- per year), a sum of Rs 400/- is required to meet the bare expenses in the conduct of the Journal, per year. At present, the Editor is reimbursed to the extent of Rs 300/- a year by way of emoluments which on a distribution comes to Rs 25/- a month, which, I dare say is too small to attract zealous and arden work. Government have sanctioned a pay of Rs 25/- a month to the Editor's clerk. The Editor's emoluments have therefore to be raised to at least Rs 500/- a year.

6) The subscription for the Journal which has advisedly been fixed at Rs 2/- per annuam, so as to bring it within the reach of the constables, cannot, without detriment to the number of subscribers, be raised. As this journal has been doing very useful work in improving the tone and morale of the Force, I would request you to kindly move Government in the matter of sanctioning an annual grant of Rs 600/-for conducting the Journal successfully. This amount may be met out of Rs 4000/- provided for "House rent for Hostel and other charges" in the Police Training School (Expenditure. 20-Police. 4-Police Training School).

Government Order No.G.3498-9/Police. 178-18-4 dated 12th August 1919, sanctioning among other matters, a special allotment of Rs.500/- as a grant-in-aid for the conduct of the Kannada Mysore Police Journal.

2. Letter No.C.1909/20 dated 24/27th January 1921 from the Inspector General of Police in Mysore, requesting, for reasons stated, sanction to an annual grant of Rs.600/- for the said journal and proposing to meet the amount from the provision of Rs.4,000/- made for 'House rent for Hostel and other charges' under '20 Police - 4 Police Training School.'

Order No. G 18 220-21 / Jud 120-20-2.

Dated Bangalore the 30·3· 1921.

The grant in question was sanctioned to give a start to the journal and it was hoped that with the help so given, the journal would become self-supporting at the end of the year. The letter of the Inspector General shows that the realisations fall short of the cost by Rs.400/-. As the journal is reported to be serving a very useful purpose, Government are pleased to sanction this sum for another year but not the enhanced remuneration proposed for the
